5TH SUMMER SCHOOL ON SOCIAL CHOICE AND ETHICS
WARWICK BUSINESS SCHOOL, UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK
COVENTRY, UNITED KINGDOM
4 – 7 JULY, 2017

The issues of social justice and ethics percolate extensively in various aspects of decision-making including policy choices and business strategies. The last decade, particularly, has witnessed the emergence of novel theoretical and empirical models in social choice theory, welfare economics, and ethics. The Summer School is targeted at doctoral students, postdoctoral researchers and junior faculty in the fields of economics, behavioural science, and management and organisation studies who are interested in learning novel economic and behavioural science approaches to justice, fairness, and ethics. The School will take place at University of Warwick, United Kingdom. It will feature series of lectures by distinguished economists and behavioural scientists who have made significant contributions to the fields:

Lecturers

John Roemer	Yale University
John Weymark	Vanderbilt University
Nick Chater	Warwick Business School
Edi Karni	Johns Hopkins University and Warwick Business School
Chengwei Liu	Warwick Business School
Sebastiano Massaro	Warwick Business School
Tigran Melkonyan	Warwick Business School
Zvi Safra	Warwick Business School
